Borrower Responsibilities

As the borrower of this Book Club in a Bag kit you are fully responsible for the return of the bag and all of its original contents.

- The books in your bag are numbered to help you keep track of which member of your group has it. We strongly suggest that you keep a list of who has which book.
- You have the bag for 6 weeks. When you return the bag make sure all of the contents, including the folder with the paperwork, are present.
- Please do not use the book drop to return the bag, bring it into the library.
- You will be personally billed if the bag is not returned.
- You will be personally billed if any books are missing from the bag when it is returned.
- Please keep track of the paperwork that comes with this bag and return it all, this smoothes the way for the next group in line who has reserved this bag.
