

Conflict of Interest Statement*

Introduction

As a nonprofit, tax-exempt independent corporation, the Hudson Area Association Library depends upon philanthropic gifts of time and money from the public as well as contracts from government agencies.

Maintenance of our organization's tax-exempt status and public position depend upon the highest standards of ethical and professional practice, including compliance with all relevant laws and regulations. The community – including private donors and volunteers and federal, state and local corporate and tax officials – views the operations of the Hudson Area Association Library as a public trust. As a public trust, the Hudson Area Association Library is subject to scrutiny by and accountability to such governmental authorities as well as to members of the public.

Consequently, there exists between the Hudson Area Association Library and its employees and volunteers a broad and unbending duty of loyalty and fidelity.

Scope

The scope of this policy includes Board members and officers, committee and task force members, other volunteers, and employees.

Upon appointment, and annually thereafter, affected individuals are required to disclose specific circumstances that may represent an actual, perceived, or potential conflict of interest or commitment. The person should not only consider the actual fact of conflict, but the appearance to an unknowing third party who might have occasion to judge or interpret the situation.

In addition to the annual reporting, actual, potential and/or perceived conflicts of interest shall be reported in writing as soon as they arise. Any such report shall be forwarded c/o of the Executive Director of the Hudson Area Association Library, for official presentation to Governance Committee.

The Committee on Governance, in consultation with the Executive Director and Board President, shall attempt to resolve any action or potential conflict, and shall respond in writing to the individual. In the absence of resolution, the conflict shall be referred to the Board of Directors for action.

The individual in conflict shall absent him/herself from the room during any discussion or deliberations related to the issue, and shall refrain from participating in decision-making in connection with the matter. The individual's presence at the meeting shall not be counted in determining whether there exists a quorum.

Definition

A conflict of interest or commitment generally arises when an individual has the opportunity to influence decisions in ways that could lead to personal benefit or improper advantage resulting in the compromise or appearance of compromise of the individual's judgment and ability to carry out his/her professional duties objectively.

This refers to any social, professional, personal or organizational affiliation, commitment, activity or undertaking that is so substantial as to interfere or appear to interfere with the individual's responsibility to the Hudson Area Association Library, including but not limited to:

- a) Advancing a personal agenda or agenda from another organization

- b) Using the association with the Hudson Area Association Library in connection with the promotion of partisan politics, religious matters, any other cause, or positions on any issues not in conformity with the position of the Hudson Area Association Library.
- c) Holding any ownership interest in a business or profession that provides goods or services to the Hudson Area Association Library
- d) Having a financial or other interest in a transaction with the Hudson Area Association Library
- e) Acting in multiple capacities either within or without the Hudson Area Association Library in any matter or transaction relating to the Hudson Area Association Library
- f) Receiving compensation for services to the Hudson Area Association Library other than approved compensation for staff
- g) Accepting favors, gifts, gratuities, or taking part in any activities or transactions that relate to, affect or influence decisions made for, regard, or on behalf of the Hudson Area Association Library
- h) Using donor or client information or relationships inappropriately or in ways that might damage donor confidentiality and/or relationships with the Hudson Area Association Library
- i) Participating in any arrangements or transactions that might give the appearance of a conflict of interest
- j) Using the Hudson Area Association Library name, emblem, endorsement, services and property for anything other than authorized the Hudson Area Association Library activities

Individuals affected by this policy shall maintain the highest standards of ethical behavior, integrity and public responsibility. No Board or committee member, volunteer or employee shall use his/her position, or the knowledge gained therefrom, in such a manner that a conflict between the interest of the Hudson Area Association Library and the individual's personal interests arises. Each individual affected by this policy has a duty to place the interest of the Hudson Area Association Library foremost in any dealings with the Hudson Area Association Library and has a continuing responsibility to comply with the requirements of this policy.

Nepotism

Board members and their immediate family members (as defined below) shall be excluded from consideration for employment by the Hudson Area Association Library.

Employees shall not hold a position with the Hudson Area Association Library while they or members of their immediate family (as defined below) serve on the Board of Directors or on any committee of the Board.

Employees may not hold a job over which a member of their immediate family exercises supervisory authority.

Relatives of persons currently employed by the Hudson Area Association Library may be hired only if they will not be working directly for or supervising a relative. If already employed, they cannot be transferred into such a reporting relationship. If the relative relationship is established after employment, the individuals concerned shall decide – along with MACC management – who is to be transferred. That decision shall be made within 30 calendar days.

Relatives will not be hired within the same department, division, program, or facility where such has the potential for creating an adverse effect on supervision, safety, security, morale or involves potential conflicts of interest without the prior written approval of the Executive Director.

Immediate family includes the following: spouses, life partners, parents, children, siblings, in-laws, grandparents and grandchildren, and step relationships. This policy also applies to individuals who are not legally related but who reside with another employee in a familial relationship rather than a roommate relationship.

Conflict of Interest in seeking employment

Board members shall not apply for or be considered for employment within the Hudson Area Association Library without resigning from the Board prior to embarking upon any step in the application process. If the Board member is not hired, she or he cannot be reconsidered for a position within the Board of Directors for at least 12 months.

Former employees of the organization cannot be considered for Board positions until at least 12 months after departing from employment at the organization.

Acceptance and disclosure

I have read the statement of policy regarding conflicts of interest. To the best of my knowledge, and belief, except as disclosed herewith, neither I nor any person with whom I have or have had a personal, business or organizational relationship is engaged in any transaction or activity or has any relationship that may represent a potential competing or conflicting interest or commitment, as defined herein.

Further, to the best of my knowledge and belief, except as disclosed herewith, neither I nor any person with whom I have or have had a personal, business, organizational, or compensated relationship intends to engage in any transaction, to acquire any interest in any organization or entity, or to become the recipient of any substantial gifts or favors that might be covered by the statement of policy regarding conflicts of interest.

In the event that such a situation might arise, I will provide information as described in this policy.
